Description

Ranch Hand Punch Style

Now you can get the legendary Wilson quality you know and trust in a slat style aluminum livestock trailer.

Wilson is now offering a double wall slat style aluminum livestock trailer along with our ever popular punch side models. The new double wall slat style has been field proven to be very rugged and of course it is made of aluminum so it will be very long lasting. Haul with confidence and realize your lowest cost of ownership with Wilson.

Wilson offers slat style patterns for hauling both cattle and hogs plus the trailer is built on the same all-aluminum sub frame as Wilson's other punch side gooseneck livestock models.

Available in 5 popular lengths with the same list of convenient optional equipment as the Ranch Hand punch side model.
